Brand Sartorial Guidelines

The Sartorial Identity

Villa Leonessa Bab Atlas · Marrakech. A visual catalogue of the staff identity, blending Italian nobility with Moroccan heritage.

SECTION 01

The Vision:
Heritage & Craft

DESIGN PHILOSOPHY

Italian Noble Tailoring

Rooted in the 11-century lineage of Prince Federico, the uniforms prioritize structure, bespoke fit, and aristocratic presence. We utilize Milanese silhouettes and fine linen-wool blends.

Moroccan Handcraft

The local heritage is expressed through traditional embroidery (Alamari), the integration of the Fez/Tarbouch, and breathable linen fabrics suited for the Marrakech light.

THE CULINARY TEAM

Gastronomic Nobility

Our kitchen staff embodies precision and cleanliness. The uniform features high-collar white linen with the gold crowned monogram prominently displayed on the chest.

The assistant wears a complementary design, ensuring a cohesive aesthetic in the heart of the villa.

SECURITY & PROTECTION

Guardians of Leonessa

A regal presence at the gates. The security uniform utilizes 'Leonessa Night' navy wool with traditional gold-threaded Alamari closures and shoulder braiding.

The look is completed with a structured velvet Fez, signaling authority with unyielding grace.

Estate Maintenance

Stewards of the Earth

Designed for the golden light of the Palmeraie. Heavy cotton and linen in 'Marrakech Rose' and 'Ivory' tones allow for movement while maintaining aesthetic rigor.

Refined straw hats with the gold wordmark provide functional protection and brand visibility.

ENGINEERING & CRAFT

Masters of Infrastructure

Function meets luxury. Technical staff wear structured utility jackets in terracotta twill with custom leather belts etched with the Villa Leonessa wordmark.

Even in utility, the monogram patch signifies a commitment to the house's standards.

Interior Service

The Art of Hospitality

Softness and light. Housekeeping uniforms feature 'Ivory Parchment' linen tunics with 'Zellige Blue' accents and delicate gold thread embroidery.

The use of Selham-style draping creates a silhouette of quiet, aristocratic movement.

Manager Uniform

THE LEADERSHIP

The Visionary Presence

The pinnacle of the sartorial system. An Italian 'Spezzato' suit in navy and zellige blue, featuring gold thread closures instead of standard buttons.

The manager acts as the ambassador of the Pignatelli della Leonessa name, merging Milanese flair with Moroccan nobility.

ATTIRE PILLARS

Aristocratic

Every piece of clothing conveys a sense of belonging to an 11-century lineage, never loud but always certain.

Sensorial

Fabrics are chosen for their tactile quality—linen, silk, and velvet—designed to interact with the unique Marrakech light.

Timeless

Avoiding trend-based "luxury," the uniforms focus on silhouettes that could exist in 1920 or 2025.
